What have the Barre and Montpelier policemen got to say to that?

The Montpelier committee of which Joseph A. Delaney is chairman, appointed by Mayor Hale, at the special city meeting August 1, to investigate the project of erecting city stables and a city hall, met the city council last evening in the city court room for an informal discussion of the subject. Nothing definite was accomplished, but the various articles in the warning for the special city meeting were discussed. This committee and the city council will from time to time hold public meetings at which any citizen and taxpayer who has any suggestions to make or plans to offer in regard to the matters under consideration will be given a hearing.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Attilio Bertagna of Proctor inflicts Terrible Wound in Breast.

Proctor, Aug. 10.—Attilio Bertagna, a stone cutter in the employ of the Vermont Marble company, killed himself Wednesday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock at the home of his brother, Orsino, dying within a short time from a terrible wound inflicted in his chest. Dr. H. Hack was called but his services were not required as Mr. Bertagna was dead when the doctor arrived upon the scene.

No reason is known why Mr. Bertagna should have taken his life. He had been under treatment for some mental trouble many years ago, but since then he has acted entirely rational and nobody has thought during the last few years that his mind was otherwise than normal.

Mr. Bertagna was 43 years old. He had lived here about 37 years, working as a cutter in the finishing shop. He was not married and leaves here a brother, Orsino, with whom he has made his home for many years. He is well spoken of by his neighbors and was respected as an upright and honorable citizen.
